JIM CLARK RAN

Mr. Gorman's Great Sprinter Beat a Good Field in the Sprint Handicap at Delmar.

FITZBRILLAR A GOOD COLT.

E. J. Arnold's Recent Purchase Won Two-Year-Old Event in a Game Style-Blue Mint Beat Hucena in a Hard Finish.

That excellent sprinter, Jim Clark, afforded racewoers at Delmer yesterday a handsome exhibition of running. He was a 6-to-1 shot over Father Wentker, Frank Bell and Okla in the six-furlong handicap. These horses averaged 3 to 1. A good start sent Okla and Bell away in front. Jim Clark lay third and Father Wentker fifth. This order was maintained to the stretch Father Wentker took the long way every foot of it. Around the stretch turn, Jim Clark came with a dazzling turn of speed, and, going past the leaders, won eased up in 1:15, a brilliant race, the weight considered. He had 116 pounds up.

Father Wentker ran quite as good a race considering the manner of his start and the way in which he was ridden. He closed ground fast and ran a nice race in the stretch. He was giving away a lot of weight and did well under it. Okla and Frank Bell ran each other off their feet. The Eastern colt, Fitzbrillar, whom Pat Tomlinson recently bought for E. J. Arnold & Co., ran a handsome race in the second event. He showed more early speed than the sensational Avoid, who has always been exceedingly fast, went past her and ran gamely when challenged by Geheimness. He was all out, but Geheimness cracked first and gave way. Fitzbrillar performed like a cott of speed and rare pluck. Avoid ran a brilliant and much improved race, came fast at the end and finished stanchiv.

Little Lois won a very pretty race in the third event. At the three-eighths pole the entire field was bunched so that a blanket would have covered it. Little Lois moved through fast in the stretch and won easily. Ladas was restrained to the last 100 yards and finished with a rush, contrary to his usual way of performing, which has always been running in front and stopping at the end.

There was a wild plunge on Hucena in the fifth event at 2s. Blue Mint, who was as good as is, beat her easily at the end. Sculiv gave Hucena a bad ride and a very weak finish. Bonner quite outrode him at the end.

Dale took good care of the favorite. Clonsilia, in the last race, rated her well behind a wild pace, and brought her up with a nice rush in the stretch. Onanetta ran a very good race here, and Kiss Quick showed a nice turn of speed and stayed well at the finish.

Fourth Race-Kitty Clyde, Wax Taper, Jos Doughty, Fifth Race-Stranger, Gallantrie, Croix d'Or. Sixth Race-Varner, Eugenia S., Huceha.

AS A BETTING PROPOSITION. Welcome Light Looks Temptine in First-Kitty Clyde in Handicap. Mr. Maginn has furnished a rarely good card for Delmar to-day. On her good race against Marchioness the other day Welcome Light looks sweet in the first event today. Latuka has shown speed every time out, but in making riders of M. Thompson and McGovern John E. Madden is throwing away a number of races, and this mare will not be well handled to-day. St. Vitus will run well and so will Lazarre. Northern Spy was a good horse last year, He could beat this lot doing anything. He should win to-day if he is up to his form of last summer. Ben Hullum has a long west Baden had a lot up his sleeve the other day when he won. In fact, he never was extended at any part of it. Velasquez will take a lot of beating, for he has early speed that will carry his away from these horses, though he will find the last furlong tiresome.

Pourquoi Pas has grown to be a fine filly. She ran a real good rare on Wednesday behind Ben Lear and Crime. She was just a mite short of work for it. She will go well to-day. Makeda's last race was distinctly disappointing. She had neither speed nor staying power. While Mr. Madden is using his local stable as a kindergarten to teach stable boys to ride, there is not much use in playing his horses. Pass Makeda, hard as it is to do it. Wolfram is a thickheaded brute, who may run first or last. He is a bad actor, who will keep the field at the post for a long time, and then is liable to get off badly.

Kitty Clyde has had two good races to her credit with big weight up. With fifteen pounds off to-day and a good boy up she should do something. She is a good mare and seems to be right just now. Glenwood, with his 100 pounds, will take a lot of heating. If Wax Taper is good he will have a chance at the weights. Scully has been murdering Joe Doughty in his recent races. With a good ride on him. Doughty will not be easy to beat to-day.

On what he has done in the East, Stranger should win the fifth race, though he favors a distance. Still he is a $1,000 horse. There are not many of that kind in the race. Gallantrie will be the one they have get to heat. It is too short for Helen Print, who will begin but slowly, and who will find the big field embarrassing as she goes through it in the stretch. Gallantrie has not been out for some time. Her last race was a brilliant one, indeed. Croix d'Or is better placed than he has been in handicaps, and he will take his share of beating. Then Kansas Lily. Loca and Hainault are all fast. It should be a good race. The players should get 7 to 1 for their money.

How about Eugenia S. to-day? Hucena should win on her race yesterday. Kitty Clyde could not give her twenty-rix pounds. Eugenia S. can scarce give her eighteen pounds. Varner looks like the horse they have got to bent. His race with that good lot two races back was an excellent one. It stamps him as a consistent and good little plater. Kunja has been ridden this way and that now in front. now behind, now both ways, and then sideways, so that no one can tell what she really is. With a good, straightaway ride, placed about third Casconda Takes Third and Fourth Heats of 2:11 Pace, but Is Cleverly Defeated in Final Round.

Cleveland, O., July 24.-Three favorites and an outsider won at the Grand Circuit meeting to-day. Darwin was the selection for the opening race and Lord Marsh was the second choice. The showing made by Lord Marsh in the first two heats, which he won, caused a break of the money toward him. He was all out after the first half of the third mile had been raced, however, and he caught the fing on the next trip.

Wentworth loomed up in the third heat and and was able to beat Darwin, who was always the contender.

Daphne Dallas was made the favorite in the 2:11 pace, with Dick See as a strong second. The pace was teriffic all the way and all seemed lost to the favorite after she was beaten by Casconda in the third and fourth heats. She chused Casconda so fast in the fourth heat, however, that he

Mr. Bration desires to make the merting attractive in a spectacular way. He wants to give a race in which ladies will ride. The Misses Mulhall, Miss May Bration and several other young girls will be invited to put sideraddles on thoroughbreds. The Misses Mulhall and Bration certainly can outride many lockeys to whom their fathers are paying handsome sums for losing mounts Miss Lucile Mulhall can give such riders as Higgins, McJoynt and McKinnie twenty pounds any day. Miss May Bratton can certainly get away from the post better than L. Daly, her father's high-salaried jockey.

Then Mr. G. L. Crawford, who is an admirer of steeplechases for gentlemen riders, has offered a handsome trophy for a steeplechase, the cup to be called "The Brulare Cup." This is a compliment to the sterling old mare. Brulare, who has won so many races for W. W. Darden & Co.

The association proposes to add $1,000 to the Brulare Cup, which will be extremely valuable. This should produce a splendid steeplechase. Mr. Bratton said yesterday that he would get Mr. T. W. Lawson of Boston to send Filon D'Or, the best steeplechase horse in America, out for the event. Mr. Tompkins will ship some jumpers from Chicago, Ed Trotter is having the famous sprinter Scorpio schooled over the jumps, and he will enter him, too. Scorpio was hunted in Canada for two seasons, and is said to be a good jumper.

Mr. Bratton also talks of a gentlemen's race with the weights high enough to let Mr. J. D. Luces in.

Then Mr. Bratton is going to lay out a steeplechase course that will go over the hill to the north of the grounds, and be a real hard, up-and-down lay-out, with big jumps and all the rest.

hill to the north of the grounds, and be a real hard, up-and-down lay-out, with big jumps and all the rest.

Richard Hanlon, the rosy and rubicund Ricardo, the Touchstone of the paddock, the portly jester of the quarterstretch, whose never ending quip and merry jest serve to appease losers and delight winners, landed all the money yesterday. Mr. Hanlon had been having a long local losing streak. His handleap, his form, his keen observation, his perfect information served him naught. In vain did he burn the midnight carbon in an abortive attempt to "dope" them right. In vain did he pay hundreds of dollars for choice inside information. His private clockers falled to make good, though they were up with the lark and to bed with the own watching private trials and doing everything on earth they could.

Indeed, so bad was "Dick, the Devil's" luck in St. Louis that were it not for the $35,000 he landed when Lakeview Bell won in Chicago he would have been financially embarrassed. Yesterday he hit a new scheme. "No use in trying to dope them," said Mr. Hanlon. "Gimme that programme. Let's see that first race. There, West Baden. He ought to run. I'll bet $100 on him."

West Baden walked home at 7 to 1.

"Now for the second race," said the rollicking Ricardo, "No dope to it. Sam Lazarus, Eq., owns the Louisiana Chemical Company. He was not at his office today. The others are no good. Now this is my dope. The horse my sat word lands on I play all three ways."

Thus saying Mr. Hanlon took the programme and went over the lines of the old nursery rhyme, "Eney meny minie mo, catch a nigger by the toe, if he hollers make him pay $50 every day."

Veläsquez was the horse upon whom the rhyme wound up. Mr. Hanlon bet $30 each way on him at 15, 5 and 1. Valesquez breezed home.

The funny thing about this was that after the race Mr. Hanlon was trying to explain his scheme of handicapping to his friends. To save his soul he could not get the last word to land on Velasquez.

Jockey Dale was absent from the track for a day or two last week. It was rumored that he had followed the excellent example of Jockey Walsh and taken unto himself a wife. This is denied by the fat boy. If William could do anything that would make him ride in his form of last year, he ought to do it.

Turfmen say that the negro rider is de-caying. Maybe that is so, yet Battiste. Earl and Watson, all negroes, finished one, two, three in the handicap at Delmar yes-teriay and left five white boys behind them.

Smoot had already picked three plums in Chesbro's orchard, but in the pinch he grounded weakly to Ritchey. O'Neili bluffed for the plute and Nichols got away from second, which he had taken on Clarke's throw to the plute to catch Hartman. Ritchey sent O'Neili scrambling back with a bluff to throw home, and the provided as tossed Smoot out at first.

Wille Homer was being embalimed Nichols was leaking it back to second, as he had almost made the mistake of crowding O'Neill off third. Bransfield would have held the hall had he studied the situation at his leisure, but he thought he saw a chance for a double play that would retire the side and run the game into the extra innings. Accordingly he fired the ball to Conroy at second, but it arrived just a second too late to catch Nick silding back. Conroy recovered quickly and made a ping-pong throw to the plate when he saw O'Neill streaking it in from third. His pass was high and wide, and when O'Conno: saw that Brother John had registered he turned and fired the leather out of the park, while the St. Louis players and the fans whooped 'em up all down the line.

If Pittsburg had won O'Neill would have been largely to blame for his own defeat. Burke's two bagger, a sacrifice and O'Connor's sky rap to Smoot gave one to the Pirates in the second inning. The Cardinais came up alongside in the third, when a base on balls to John O'Neill, Mike O'Neill's single. Conroy's error and Smoot's double scored Brother John. But in the fourth O'Neill aimost gave the game away.

Tannehill drew a gift as a starter and Bransfield doubled. Burke accepted another free pass, and Tannehill scored while Kruger. Farrell and Nichols were telescoping Burke and Conroy. O'Conner planted a three-bagger in left and Bransfield scored. That double play was a lucky intervention, else the Pirates might have clinched the game there. In the eighth inning the Cardinais came user on and again established a tie. Smoot hit, but Barclay forced him. "Deerfoot" stole, and accred on Donovan's single. P. J. also pilifered the middle sick, but Chesbro bristled up and fanned Parrell and Kruger.
